restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baidness often, though not always, cured.

It checks failing of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruf, and heals nature every disease occuliar to the heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the Vicon is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

Mr. C. P. Buicings writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882; "Last fall my hair commenced failing out, and in a short time I became nearly hald. I used part of a hottle of Aven's Hair Vioon, which stopped the failing of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely baid."

J. W. Bowen, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIN VIOOR Is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promoter tile growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The Vioon is also a sure cure for daudruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation over failed to give entire satisfaction."

Mit. A NOUS FAIRMAINN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottlah Vocalista, writes from Busies, Mass., Feb. 8, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silvery evidence of the change which faceting time procureth, I have used Avanta Harn. Vicon, and so lisre been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, oracra, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

Mus. O. A. Pusscott.

Mas. O. A. Parsourt, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hate came off. It thinned very rapidly, and twas fast growing hald. On using Avent Hain Vision the falling Stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a mounth my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow and as how as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bettle of the Vision, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of Aven's Ifath Vison. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.
